

The ad hoc Website Advisory Committee will work closely with UCSB campus IT support and HR to enhance the current ucsb.edu site and to plan the development and maintenance of an Emeriti Association website that strengthens our online presence, aligns with our strategic goals, meets the needs of our members, and makes our activities known to emeriti associations on University of California and other campuses.